

OSWEGO PRINTING COMPANY. OFFICE—114 EAST FIRST STREET. PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING, (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED).

The Daily Press. FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1870. 1:30 P. M. CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFS.—A young married man named Adelbert Baker, living at Pious Hollow, Onondaga county, is under arrest for outraging the person of a little girl eleven years old, named Mary Cook.—Buckeye Chronicle.

OSWEGO CENTRE.—There was a ball at the Oswego Centre House, Oswego Centre, last evening. Peck & Fairtile's band was out from the city.

FULTON.—Literary exercises at Folley Scenicary next Tuesday evening. A letter for Benj. D. Shug, Oswego, is held for postage at Fulton.

BURIAL.—Mr. Geo. Converse, formerly of the Rushton House, Edwards, St. Lawrence Co., has taken the Bennett House in this city.

PERSONAL.—Wm. Joyce was appointed constable for the Second Ward by the Common Council, last evening, in place of Frank Behr, who failed to qualify. Mr. Joyce has done constable duty for many years and is an excellent officer.

TWO SINGS TO A STORY.—There are two sides to that story which we copied yesterday from the Oswego Palladium, concerning the firm of Levy & Wiseman. The suit which that paper said had been concluded has been carried up by the Syracuse firm, and the probability is that Messrs. L. & W. will obtain justice in the higher court, which was denied them in the lower.—Syracuse Courier.
