

A SITE FOR LIBRARY

OPINION AS TO WHERE CARNEGIE BUILDING WILL BE LOCATED.

Some Want It on the North Side in Oneida While Others Prefer the South Side—New Lot is Suggested and Meets With Favor.

ONEIDA, Jan. 15.—Residents living in the upper end of Main-st. are very ambitious these days and are using every means in their power to make the residents of other sections of the city believe that the new Carnegie library building ought to be erected in the southern part of the city.

ONEIDA, Jan. 15.—According to present predictions the painters and paper hangers of this city will have a prosperous season during the coming year.

ONEIDA, Jan. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. George Barber, who for several years have been in charge of the Children's Home in Peterboro, will soon leave that institution and return to their home in Eaton.

ONEIDA, Jan. 15.—The severe winter of the present time has kept Charities Commissioner McCraith very busy attending to the wants of the poor of this city.

ONEIDA, Jan. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Paine of Broad-st. have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Bertha Elizabeth, to James William Fraser.

ONEIDA, Jan. 15.—Henry Velling, one of the most popular young men of the North Side, who has been confined to the house for several weeks by a severe attack of pneumonia, is slowly improving.

ONEIDA, Jan. 15.—A gentleman from Pittsburg has leased the vacant store in the Warner block, Madison-st. and will open a five and ten-cent store.

ONEIDA, Jan. 15.—Miss Ella Driscoll fell the entire length of the opera house stairs last evening after attending a meeting of the C. R. and B. A. society.

ARE FIGHTING STILL

NEW TURN OF EVENTS IN BACON-STORY CONTROVERSY.

The Latter Succeeds the Former as President of the Waterloo Wagon Company—Review of the Rival Financial Factions.

WATERLOO, Jan. 15.—An important reorganization of one of the prosperous and leading industries of this place was effected at the annual meeting of the Waterloo wagon company, Wednesday evening.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 15.—Howard Marsden of Scottsdale, Pa. is in town assisting in the Farmers' Exchange bank in the place of Supervisor F. L. Marsden, who is ill.

WANT FLAGMEN AT CROSSINGS

DR. JOHN F. CROSBY, MEMBER FROM SENECA, INTRODUCES BILL IN LEGISLATURE.

SENECA FALLS, Jan. 15.—Dr. John F. Crosby will introduce a bill at the present session of the Legislature, requiring railroad companies to maintain flagmen or some automatic device at all crossings.

SENECA FALLS, Jan. 15.—Thomas Sibbalds, Jr., of Buffalo, is the guest of his parents in White-st.

SENECA FALLS, Jan. 15.—Mrs. James K. Beebe of Jay-st. is entertaining her daughter, Miss Marie Beebe of Rochester.

SENECA FALLS, Jan. 15.—The Rev. Dr. A. W. Taylor, pastor of the Congregational church, will preach next Sunday morning on the theme, "Dr. Jekyll and Mrs. Hyde."

CORTLAND, Jan. 15.—The Pervis will case, which has occupied the attention of the Supreme court for four days, will be brought to a close to-day.

CORTLAND, Jan. 15.—An incessant snow storm, with hardly four hours interval in 48, has been raging in Cortland and throughout the county.

FULTON COUNCIL MEET

FINANCIAL MATTERS BROUGHT UP BUT NOT DISPOSED OF.

FULTON, Jan. 15.—An adjourned meeting of the Common Council was held last evening. There was a full meeting of the board. The question of the annual compilation of the board was first spoken of and a quite lengthy consultation was held on this point.

FULTON, Jan. 15.—The Fortnightly social dancing party of the Ketch "Em Klub" will be held in Toller hall to-morrow evening.

HOMER, Elections, Meetings and Social Events.

HOMER, Jan. 15.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Homer National bank held Tuesday.

RURAL DELIVERY FOR PULASKI

WILL BE ESTABLISHED ON FEB. 1—LENGTH OF ROUTE IS MORE THAN TWENTY-TWO MILES.

PULASKI, Jan. 15.—A new rural free delivery route will be established here on Monday, Feb. 1, and will be the fourth route running from the local postoffice.

CORTLAND, Jan. 15.—The Pervis will case, which has occupied the attention of the Supreme court for four days, will be brought to a close to-day.

CORTLAND, Jan. 15.—An incessant snow storm, with hardly four hours interval in 48, has been raging in Cortland and throughout the county.

EXTRAORDINARY RUNAWAY

CONSTANTIA, Jan. 15.—When train 61 on the New York, Ontario and Western railway pulled up to the station here yesterday at 10:40 a. m.

WATERLOO, Jan. 15.—The case of Charles B. Day and Samuel Beard vs. Edward Lutz, which occupied Wednesday afternoon and yesterday forenoon, in Justice John M. Barrett's court in South Waterloo, was concluded under unusual circumstances.

WATERLOO, Jan. 15.—The case of Charles B. Day and Samuel Beard vs. Edward Lutz, which occupied Wednesday afternoon and yesterday forenoon, in Justice John M. Barrett's court in South Waterloo, was concluded under unusual circumstances.

WATERLOO, Jan. 15.—The case of Charles B. Day and Samuel Beard vs. Edward Lutz, which occupied Wednesday afternoon and yesterday forenoon, in Justice John M. Barrett's court in South Waterloo, was concluded under unusual circumstances.

WATERLOO, Jan. 15.—The case of Charles B. Day and Samuel Beard vs. Edward Lutz, which occupied Wednesday afternoon and yesterday forenoon, in Justice John M. Barrett's court in South Waterloo, was concluded under unusual circumstances.

WATERLOO, Jan. 15.—The case of Charles B. Day and Samuel Beard vs. Edward Lutz, which occupied Wednesday afternoon and yesterday forenoon, in Justice John M. Barrett's court in South Waterloo, was concluded under unusual circumstances.

WATERLOO, Jan. 15.—The case of Charles B. Day and Samuel Beard vs. Edward Lutz, which occupied Wednesday afternoon and yesterday forenoon, in Justice John M. Barrett's court in South Waterloo, was concluded under unusual circumstances.

WATERLOO, Jan. 15.—The case of Charles B. Day and Samuel Beard vs. Edward Lutz, which occupied Wednesday afternoon and yesterday forenoon, in Justice John M. Barrett's court in South Waterloo, was concluded under unusual circumstances.

WATERLOO, Jan. 15.—The case of Charles B. Day and Samuel Beard vs. Edward Lutz, which occupied Wednesday afternoon and yesterday forenoon, in Justice John M. Barrett's court in South Waterloo, was concluded under unusual circumstances.

WATERLOO, Jan. 15.—The case of Charles B. Day and Samuel Beard vs. Edward Lutz, which occupied Wednesday afternoon and yesterday forenoon, in Justice John M. Barrett's court in South Waterloo, was concluded under unusual circumstances.

WILL INVESTIGATE THE OPERA HOUSES

TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE AT LAST AWAKE TO NECESSITY OF SEEING THAT THEY ARE SAFE.

NORWICH, Jan. 15.—The board of trustees has become a committee of the whole to examine the opera houses in relation to fire protection.

NORWICH, Jan. 15.—The jury in the Lattimer vs. McKinnon case, which has occupied the attention of the court since its opening on Monday, retired on Wednesday at 3 p. m. and noon returned with a verdict of $1,017.37.

NORWICH, Jan. 15.—The Rev. Charles T. Olmstead, D. D., bishop-coadjutor of this diocese, will preach in Grace Episcopal church at both morning and evening services on Jan. 21.

NORWICH, Jan. 15.—The Rev. Charles T. Olmstead, D. D., bishop-coadjutor of this diocese, will preach in Grace Episcopal church at both morning and evening services on Jan. 21.

NORWICH, Jan. 15.—The Rev. Charles T. Olmstead, D. D., bishop-coadjutor of this diocese, will preach in Grace Episcopal church at both morning and evening services on Jan. 21.

NORWICH, Jan. 15.—The Rev. Charles T. Olmstead, D. D., bishop-coadjutor of this diocese, will preach in Grace Episcopal church at both morning and evening services on Jan. 21.

NORWICH, Jan. 15.—The Rev. Charles T. Olmstead, D. D., bishop-coadjutor of this diocese, will preach in Grace Episcopal church at both morning and evening services on Jan. 21.

NORWICH, Jan. 15.—The Rev. Charles T. Olmstead, D. D., bishop-coadjutor of this diocese, will preach in Grace Episcopal church at both morning and evening services on Jan. 21.

NORWICH, Jan. 15.—The Rev. Charles T. Olmstead, D. D., bishop-coadjutor of this diocese, will preach in Grace Episcopal church at both morning and evening services on Jan. 21.

BROWN'S TRACT GUIDE

ANNUAL MEETING AT OLD FORGE ACCOMPANIED BY BANQUET.

Various Resolutions Adopted and Officers Elected—Review of Past Year's Work and Present Conditions in the Adirondacks by Secretary Church.

OLD FORGE, Jan. 15.—Something like 50 of the hardy fellows to whom the summer tourists in the Adirondacks look for guidance and information in the big woods, assembled at the Forge house here yesterday at an annual meeting of the Brown's Tract Guide association.

OLD FORGE, Jan. 15.—Something like 50 of the hardy fellows to whom the summer tourists in the Adirondacks look for guidance and information in the big woods, assembled at the Forge house here yesterday at an annual meeting of the Brown's Tract Guide association.

OLD FORGE, Jan. 15.—Something like 50 of the hardy fellows to whom the summer tourists in the Adirondacks look for guidance and information in the big woods, assembled at the Forge house here yesterday at an annual meeting of the Brown's Tract Guide association.

OLD FORGE, Jan. 15.—Something like 50 of the hardy fellows to whom the summer tourists in the Adirondacks look for guidance and information in the big woods, assembled at the Forge house here yesterday at an annual meeting of the Brown's Tract Guide association.

OLD FORGE, Jan. 15.—Something like 50 of the hardy fellows to whom the summer tourists in the Adirondacks look for guidance and information in the big woods, assembled at the Forge house here yesterday at an annual meeting of the Brown's Tract Guide association.

OLD FORGE, Jan. 15.—Something like 50 of the hardy fellows to whom the summer tourists in the Adirondacks look for guidance and information in the big woods, assembled at the Forge house here yesterday at an annual meeting of the Brown's Tract Guide association.

OLD FORGE, Jan. 15.—Something like 50 of the hardy fellows to whom the summer tourists in the Adirondacks look for guidance and information in the big woods, assembled at the Forge house here yesterday at an annual meeting of the Brown's Tract Guide association.

OLD FORGE, Jan. 15.—Something like 50 of the hardy fellows to whom the summer tourists in the Adirondacks look for guidance and information in the big woods, assembled at the Forge house here yesterday at an annual meeting of the Brown's Tract Guide association.

WIFE CLAIMS HE HAS NOT LIVED LONG ENOUGH IN MICHIGAN TO SUE HER FOR DIVORCE.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

OSWEGO, Jan. 15.—A letter landed William Parr in a Detroit police station, Parry's home was in this city.

TRY the Want Ads in The Journal