

FRED METZGER IN NEW ROLE

Surprised His Friends by Becoming a Bridegroom.

HIS BRIDE IS FROM BUFFALO

Miss Louise Taylor Takes the Name of the Watertown Man, Well Known as a Violinist and Football Player.

SPECIAL TO THE POST-STANDARD. WATERTOWN, Sept. 9.—Announcement was made to-day, and was a complete surprise to the many friends of the groom, of the marriage of Fred Metzger of this city and Miss Louise Taylor of Buffalo by Rev. Father O'Mahoney at the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart last yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Metzger, who is a student at Buffalo University, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Metzger of this city and is a well-known and popular violinist and football player. Last season he played center for the Watertown team.

Mr. and Mrs. Metzger left on the 6:10 train this morning for their wedding journey.

IN NEW QUARTERS.

High School Chapel Used Yesterday for First Time.

WATERTOWN, Sept. 9.—Chapel exercises were held for the first time in the assembly hall of the new High School this morning and were conducted by Rev. Dr. S. A. Hoyt, formerly pastor of the Stone Street Presbyterian Church, who is to be librarian of the new Flower Memorial Library. Dr. Hoyt used a Bible presented to the old Jefferson County Institute, the predecessor of the present High School in 1852. Frank S. Tisdale, superintendent of city schools, was present and made a brief address.

Off in Two Particulars.

WATERTOWN, Sept. 9.—An afternoon paper prints a story that Miss Carrie Baldwin has been seen in a certain cafe, variously estimated at $45.00 to $75.00, left by an aunt in California, and that Mr. Baldwin left this afternoon for California. The principal inaccuracies in the story are that Mr. Baldwin is still here on duty and that his wealthy aunt in California is very much alive.

Chief Morrison to Read a Paper.

WATERTOWN, Sept. 9.—Fred Morrison, chief of the Watertown fire department, is to read a paper at the convention of the International Association of Fire Chiefs. He will read a paper on "Duties and Responsibilities of the Delegates to the Towns and Cities Which They Represent and to the International Association of Fire Chiefs."

Syracuse Elks Challenged.

WATERTOWN, Sept. 9.—Watertown Lodge B. P. O. Elks has organized a football team and has issued a challenge to the Syracuse Elks. It is said that the Watertown team will probably consist of William Eckhill, captain; Lonnet, Elliott, Toppa, Carpenter, Hickey, Divine, Martin, Morrison, Wilson, Ryan and Dr. J. A. Bell.

Senatorial Nominations To-day.

WATERTOWN, Sept. 9.—The Republican Senatorial Convention for the thirty-fifth district, comprising Jefferson and Madison counties, will be held at the Lincoln League rooms at 11 o'clock to-morrow forenoon, when District-Attorney George H. Cobb will be unanimously re-nominated to succeed Senator Elton R. Brown.

Lost a Hard Fight.

WATERTOWN, Sept. 9.—Former Mayor James B. Wise, who labored so strenuously to procure the use of bituminous macadam instead of asphalt for the State street pavement, has at last given up the fight and has paid in full his assessment for asphalt.

Declared Incompetent.

WATERTOWN, Sept. 9.—Richard Smith, formerly an expert and well-known machinist, was to-day declared incompetent by a sheriff's jury.

ASLEEP IN THE STATION; POCKETS FULL OF GOLD

Police Take Care of Fort Covington Man for the Night.

A man who said he was Henry Mackelwaine of Fort Covington, lay down to sleep in a secluded spot at the New York Central station at 5:30 o'clock last night, when he was aroused by Policemen James Tubbert and sent to Police Headquarters. He was charged with public intoxication. When Policeman Frank Elliott searched Mackelwaine at the station, 233.10, mostly in $20 bills, was found in his pockets.

YESTERDAY WAS QUIET AT RAILROAD STATIONS

90,000 Fair Visitors Handled During the Week.

It was a quiet day around the railroad stations yesterday as compared with the other days of the week. The Lackawanna has handed during the week close to 40,000 fair visitors to the New York Central brought about 20,000 people to the city to visit the Fair and local attractions.
