

WINTER COMING

Snow, Windy, March Colder. Full Report, Map on Page 7.

Table with 2 columns: SYRACUSE TEMPERATURES and Forecast for various times of day.

SYRACUSE HERALD-JOURNAL

FINAL NIGHT EDITION

Associated Press, United Press, International News Service, Wirephoto, Complete Local Coverage

SYRACUSE, N. Y., WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 19, 1949

VOL. 73, NO. 21,294

5 CENTS

STATE PROBES CASES

1,500 New Yorkers Draw Jobless Pay, Vacation in Florida

ALBANY (UP).—The winter wind blew cold here today as the Department of Labor considered 1,500 New Yorkers who are collecting State unemployment insurance benefits under balm Florida skies.

WILL LIVE IN MORAVIA. Motherless twins who arrived here today from Oregon to live with their grandparents in Moravia leave an American Airlines plane in the arms of stewardess Virginia Waller of San Francisco, Calif. Mary Neal is at the left and Irene on the right.

GRANDPARENTS ADOPT BABIES Motherless Twins Fly From Oregon

MOTHERLESS 10-month-old twins ended a wearying cross-country flight here today as they came to make their home with grandparents in Moravia.

Food Index Drops Again

NEW YORK (AP).—The Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food index this week declined to $6.02—lowest level in 20 months.

Big Inch Flames Leap 20 Feet

BATESVILLE, Ind. (AP).—Flames still leaped 20 feet high from the Big Inch pipeline at nearby Morris today, nine hours after natural gas in the artery caught fire.

12 Fishermen Rescued As Oneida Ice Breaks

AT LEAST a dozen fishermen were rescued from ice floes on Oneida Lake at Cleveland and Bernhard's Bay today after winds of gale force suddenly smashed apart the lake's four and a half inch coating of ice.

TODAY'S FEATURES: The following are on pages 32 and 33: Comics, Ida Jean Kain; Dr. Dean, Crossword; Mary Hawthorn, Horoscope.

INAUGURATION

Thousands Pour Into Capital

WASHINGTON IN FESTIVE MOOD

WASHINGTON (AP).—Gay and carefree thousands poured into Washington today in a holiday mood for Harry S. Truman's presidential inauguration tomorrow.

They came in a stream of special trains, by plane and automobile or pay tribute to the one-time farm boy whose mother once said he plowed the straightest row of corn in all Jackson County.

Send-off Dinner

WASHINGTON (AP).—Harry S. Truman took over the Capital City today to the echoing strains of "I'm Just Wild About Harry."

Truman Pay Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (AP).—President Truman today signed a bill raising his own pay from $75,000 to $100,000 and increasing his expense allowances by $30,000.

Crash Victim Dies

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP).—The pilot of an American airlift plane which crashed last night in the British zone while returning from Berlin died today.

80 Planes Hunt For British Craft

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP).—Eighty planes and a score of U. S. warships, including two carriers and the battleship Missouri, led a great search today for a British airliner down somewhere in the Atlantic.

Light Bulb Trust Ruled

TRENTON, N. J. (INS).—The U. S. District Court ruled in Trenton today that several large companies violated the Sherman Anti-Trust Act by combining to assist General Electric Co. in maintaining a monopoly of the American incandescent lamp industry.

Union Walkout: PARIS (AP).—American, British and Dutch delegates to the World Federation of Trade Unions executive board walked out today, they said they would have nothing further to do with the W.F.T.U., which they charged had become a Communist propaganda agency.

BOATS COLLIDE 60 MILES OFF NEW JERSEY COAST

Ten Dead, Score Injured As Ships Crash in Fog

PEACE STEP Cease Fire Is Sought By China

HANKING (AP).—The government today asked for a cease fire order on both sides in the Chinese civil war and immediate peace negotiations.

MAN GIVEN 30 DAYS TO EAT AND EAT

PITTSBURGH (AP).—Detective J. Voyle Parker decided he'd better investigate the bulges in the clothing of a man who told him "I'm powerful hungry and a little jingling money would fix me up."

Grand Jury Again Hears Chambers

NEW YORK (AP).—A federal grand jury, resuming its inquiry into espionage, heard more testimony yesterday by Whittaker Chambers, former Communist courier.

Union Clause Held Illegal

WASHINGTON (AP).—The union shop provision in John L. Lewis' contract with soft coal operators was held illegal today by a National Labor Relations Board examiner.

Fire at Restaurant Causes $40,000 Loss

FIRE BELIEVED to have been caused by the explosion of an oil heater in the furnace of Moran's restaurant, the former Hunter's Club, on W. Genesee tpk. at 5 A.M. today caused damage estimated at $40,000.

TREES KNOCKED DOWN

62-Mile Gusts Rip City In Prelude to Cold

STRONG WINDS with gusts of gale force struck the Syracuse area early today knocking down trees and limbs, felling signs and breaking windows.

Break on Fuel

Syracuseans should be saving money on their fuel bills. Since Nov. 1 the temperature has averaged 8.5 degrees above normal, the Weather Bureau reports.

UPROOTED BY WIND

UPROOTED BY WIND, which reached gale force in gusts, a large tree fell across two parked cars in front of 204 Plum st. early today.

Did't Know the Rules

ROCHESTER (AP).—A holiday man left his card last night when he took $5 from Harold Stoltz in his job market and promised to pay the money back Saturday.

Searchers Barred

LOCHGOULHEAD, Scotland (AP).—Lashing wind and rain, making ascent of the rocky Scottish Mountains impossible, today still barred an American search team from recovering the bodies of 20 American airmen whose B-29 superfortress crashed Monday in the Argyll Hills.

78 UNINJURED

Crewmen Fight Fire On Cutter

MANY VESSELS RUSH TO RESCUE NEW YORK (AP).—Ten Coast Guardsmen were killed and at least 19 injured today in the fiery crash of a Coast Guard cutter and a tanker in thick fog off the New Jersey coast.

Cut Hudson Ice

ALBANY (UP).—The collision of the Coast Guard cutter Eastwind and a tanker off New York Harbor today brought memories to many Syracuse residents.

MAN GIVEN 30 DAYS TO EAT AND EAT

PITTSBURGH (AP).—Detective J. Voyle Parker decided he'd better investigate the bulges in the clothing of a man who told him "I'm powerful hungry and a little jingling money would fix me up."

Fire at Restaurant Causes $40,000 Loss

FIRE BELIEVED to have been caused by the explosion of an oil heater in the furnace of Moran's restaurant, the former Hunter's Club, on W. Genesee tpk. at 5 A.M. today caused damage estimated at $40,000.

Searchers Barred

LOCHGOULHEAD, Scotland (AP).—Lashing wind and rain, making ascent of the rocky Scottish Mountains impossible, today still barred an American search team from recovering the bodies of 20 American airmen whose B-29 superfortress crashed Monday in the Argyll Hills.

Fire at Restaurant Causes $40,000 Loss

FIRE BELIEVED to have been caused by the explosion of an oil heater in the furnace of Moran's restaurant, the former Hunter's Club, on W. Genesee tpk. at 5 A.M. today caused damage estimated at $40,000.